Turn Trash To Treasure With Twinkle And Tinsel

Tweet 13 Buzz Like

Long time friends of Jack, artists, Twinkle and Tinsel are back yet again with an interactive art event that you can get involved with, Trash to Treasure.

Tinsel and Twinkle want you for this fundraising art event on the 30th July where you can bring bits of 'trash' that you no longer want and the girls will turn it into a piece of art, upcycling it to create something keepable and no longer disposable.

When you give your unwanted piece of trash to Tinsel and Twinkle they will ask you your hopes and dreams for our planet and will paint these onto your object transforming it into a piece of art that communicates your hopes for the future.

All pieces of trash made into treasure will be signed and returned to the barer as a new and unique piece of art. All that is asked for is a donation to be involved that will be given to the charity Ubuntu Education Fund who help abandoned and orphaned children cope with AIDS and HIV.
